1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

In Specification

Page 1, insert --- This application is a continuation of application No. 09/156,133, filed on Sep. 17, 1998, now Patent No. 6,308,260 ---.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach or suggest an apparatus for self-initiated instruction issuing mechanism including rename register device that is coupled to an instruction queue that includes a plurality of entries, each queue entry having a first portion for storing a first link data value, second portion for storing a first data value, and a third portion for receiving a first one of a plurality of operand tags. The rename register device including a plurality of entries, each entry having a first portion operable for storing a pointer data value, a second portion operable for storing a validity data value, and a third portion operable for receiving a plurality of operand tags. Wherein each the pointer data value of the rename register device is associated with a corresponding queue entry of the instruction queue, each the first link data value is set in response to the pointer data values and the validity data values. For all of these reasons, the present invention teaches an improved apparatus for self-initiated instruction issuing mechanism.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
